Generation 2

2. HENRY ²TALBOT (John ¹) was born in 1822 in Ramsbury, Wiltshire, England. He died on 09 Mar 1912 in Jamestown, South Australia. He married Susannah Hobbs, daughter of Charles Henry Hobbs and Elizabeth Mudge, on 27 Sep 1851 in Hungeford, Berkshire, England. She was born in 1822 in Foxfield, Wiltshire, England. She died on 14 Aug 1911 in Jamestown, South Australia.

Notes for Henry Talbot:

As Henry's Mother was Sarah Mudge & Susannah's Mother Elizabeth Mudge, they were possibly cousins.

It is said that they were persuaded to come to Australia by the Mudge Family - one of them whom came back for them.

The only Mudge arriving in South Australia prior to that were all single (as per Mrs Golda Packers Investigation).

However married sisters whose names would have changed , could have come here to South Australia.

Henry his wife Susannah (nee Hobbs) & their son John & Henry's brother Thomas , his wife

Eliza & their 2 sons , David 4 years & Charles 1 year came to Australia in the "Magdalena" in 1853.

Notes for Susannah Hobbs:

Susannah had a claim to Hobb's million, when her parents died

The Story goes to say she was asked to go home to England to identify herself, so she could inherit in her Parent's Fortune and that Grandpa Talbot, was a hard man, and that he burnt all her documents saying, " he had to work for all he had, and that was also good enough for her."

As Susannah had no money for her fare, the inheritance was never claimed by her.

With further research it has been identified that Susannah was not the only child, so the Hobb's millions, would had to have been shared.

They had 10 children, 5 girls and 5 boys.

DOES ANYONE KNOW WHERE THEY ARE?

the face of one who has had to learn many thingsMy name is David Rodney Broughton. Born- Australia, South Australia, Barmera 31st August, 1947.

My father is David Broughton. (no middle name). Born- Yorkshire, England. My Mothers birth certificate states.. Gwendolyn Josephine Dunstan, born in Broken Hill, but I knew her as Marie Turner at various times in my childhood. Her Father was Cyril Montgomery Dunstan.

My parents were married in The Church of Christ at Berri NSW, Australia, where I suspect my mother had family.

My sister, Wendy, was born about a year later than me. My parents marriage was ended around 1951, so I spent my childhood as I hoped my own child would not... Away.

My Mother and Father were very young when they married. Mother was 16 and my father 23. I was born a year later. They separated when I was around two and a half years old. I remember my sister crawling around the floor. My mother was a very beautiful woman with a huge smile and a feeling of love radiating from her that has sustained me throughout my life.

I have one very amateurish photograph of her which I took when I was 16. This is it. My Mudder. Does she look familiar? Remember... This was around 1965.

My father finally disappeared from my life completely at Easter when I was around 6 years old, while I was living at a children's home at 11 Smith Street Walkerville in South Australia. He left me a chocolate Easter egg and Chocolate bunny during the night. For some reason I woke in the dormitory and heard his voice. I remember it well. I didn't know I would never "see" him again.

So I have been looking for my Father, Mother, Sister and any relatives for many years.

I have not seen my sister since the day of her 5th birthday somewhere around 1954-55 which may have been held in Bundaberg or perhaps Berri, at the home of my mothers sister I knew as Auntie Dulsie. She was perhaps 1 or 1.5 years younger than me.

But women disappear in our society. Don't they? They get married and their identity is erased as they lovingly take on their husband's name as their own. I think it was a tradition in Europe for the woman's family name to be bracketed by her husband's name. So my Dianne would be known as Dianne Maree Parrott Broughton.

At the birthday party I disobeyed my mother who told me not to tell Wendy that I was her brother and that my mother was really her mother. Wendy regarded Auntie Dulsie as her Mother.

I felt I had only this one chance to throw out a lifeline. I secretly told a disbelieving Wendy that I was indeed her brother and that one day I would find her... when I grow up... Well I have been looking for my sister for 30 years. With the Internet I hope to do a little better.

While I was visiting Sydney down from Walcha where I lived in the Ohio Boys Home, for the "Selection Board" into the Army. I was 15 years of age in late 1962. Then I had an amazing experience.

Acting on a childhood memory, I did what the Child Welfare Department could not do. I found my Mother, living in Sydney's Kings Cross. Her life had been difficult.

She told me my father had re-married and had two sons.

My mother and I separated in February 1965-6 over a typical teenage outburst of anger and protest that I have regretted to this day.

About a year later, I thought I recognised her getting into a taxi one morning while I was waiting at a bus stop to go to work near the city (Sydney). She seemed to want to recognise me, I wasn't sure. But I have never forgotten her facial expression as she threw her head back in my direction with the taxi disappearing down William Street. It was only then I realised it really was her. But when I began to reach out to wave, she was gone. I never saw her again.

He died on 06 Dec 2002 in Port Pirie, South Australia.

Notes for Robert Anthony Hawkins:

Born in Cardiff, South Wales on the 6th June 1954, Rob immigrated with his family to Australia as a 16-year-old in March 1970. He lived in Boxhill with his mother Rose and Father Harry. Robert was the youngest brother in the family of 4, and was very close to his older sister Phil and his sisters Maureen, and Rita who passed away 8 years ago.

Phil, Maureen and Rob worked together in a cardboard box-making factory in Boxhill and it was there that as a 17 year old he had a terrible accident that nearly claimed his life and severed his hand. Always one of the first to have a go, Rob was the pioneer patient for the surgery technique to re-grow his hand internally.

Ready for adventure and against his mother's wishes, Rob headed off in his Red and white F100 to tour Australia in 1982. He got as far as Pirie, swept Trudy off her feet and married on December 4th, having celebrated their 20th Wedding Anniversary just 2 days before his death. In Rob's typical sense of humour he remarked - "Geese, you don't even get 20 years for murder now"

Rob did get to continue his journey across Australia to Perth, just a month ago with his mate Frankie Gordon who reported that Rob became the expert critic of Motel Rooms.

One of Rob's first jobs in Port Pirie was to Landscape the Education Centre where he demonstrated the hard work ethics commitment which were his trademarks.

Rob has been "Mr Do It and Fix It" for Crime Prevention ever since he started as a full time employee for 6 months removing the graffiti build up over many years to "clean slate" the town and as a support worker to the artists in the Mural Makers Project. Sixteen Murels were painted in the City with Rob not only the logistics person but also as an artist. 'During this time he excelled in his organizational skills with a "can find and can do" attitude.

Rob continued as a casual employee of Council's Crime Prevention program as a contracted Graffiti Removalist and leader of the removalist team. His knowledge and skills developed over 9 years and will be greatly missed. Rob was very proud of the wide recognition gained for Port Pirie's successful graffiti removal and prevention program. The day before he died, Rob was proudly showing his design for the new Graffiti Trailer that he was going to build.

In 1996 Rob was employed as the supervisor of the Threadgold Park project, where he led a team of 8 employees in re-developing Threadgold Park using the community's own design.

When the BushLaw project started in 1994, Rob worked as a volunteer and then became an employee on the program as Camp Supervisor and Action Plan Partner.

He was often found sitting on the wharf with his young charges, fishing and chatting and helping them sort out their problems.

He was also a volunteer driver with Corrections and recognised as a most reliable, trustworthy and committed volunteer.

Rob loved fishing and was instrumental in starting up the Pine Land based Anglers Club. He always had a fishing tale to tell and loved to take his children fishing off the wharf. He also enjoyed organising fishing trips with the club.

There wasn't a job Rob couldn't do and he has worked very hard in the last 2 years renovating his home for Trudy and the girls.

Port Pirie will be a much emptier city without Rob Lotswin.
