Maywald's In Australia Since 1844

Edited 02 -12-2022

FOREWORD

An e-mail which was received indicates that our hereditary surname: with its variations Mewald, Mei(y)wald, Mai(y)wald, Mehwald comes from the territory of today's Polish Silesia from the village Maywaldau (today's Maciejowa), which is now a part of the district town Jelenia Góra (until 1945 Hirschberg). The oldest inscription of surname is Thommo Meyenwald from; 1367, from the town Legnica (Liegnitz). Further one is recorded at the same place in 1575 as Tobias Mehewald. The surname comes from the German word Maginwalten - rules by might. In the registers on the Czech side of Giant Mountains (Riesengebirge - Krkonoše) appears the surname around 1651 in Rokytnice (Rochlitz), Mladá Buky, Libotov and in 1663 in Vědkovice (Witkowicz), too. Vědkovice from this time becomes hereditary starting point of the Mewalds, Meywalds etc. From this region the Mewalds migrated, as it seen today, into the whole world. Up to now we find these surnames in the Giant Mountains but unfortunately in the initial village Vědkovice, do not live the Mewalds anymore, due to the transfer of the German families after the war. We found out on the internet and number of correspondable surnames and the most repeated variation Maywald, which can be found in our registers from Vědkovice, too. It is possible to assume, that there is a wide relationship of that surname bearers, at least they are originally all from the same area.

POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND RELIGIOUS EVENTS IN CENTRAL EUROPE

Until 1871 there was no United Germany. From 1815 - 1871, a Confederation of German States existed, each State ruled by its own Prince, Duke or Margrave.

The following will supply a portrait of the rise of Prussia from a small insignificant Territory to the greatest power in Central Europe, until the establishment of the German Empire.

- 1226 The Order of Teutonic Knights ruled the small Territory of Prussia, where the original Prussians had, in the main, become extinct.
- 1440 Friedrich II, son of the Margrave of Brandenburg became the Elector of Brandenburg.
- 1520 The Reformation spread throughout Europe - some of the Rulers followed Martin Luther others John Calvin. Most of the Electors, Princes, Dukes and Kings of Europe including England followed the old tenet "cujus regis, ejus religio" (who's the region the religion). Thus, the people were usually the same religion as their rulers.
- 1618 The Thirty Years' War began - as a religious war but became political, so intertwined were the two.
Elector Johann Sigismund, Elector of Brandenburg, became the Duke of Prussia through inheritance. For political purposes Sigismund, a Lutheran converted to Calvinism, but he was wise enough not to impose Calvinism on his Lutheran or Catholic subjects. The State of Prussia was a secular State, with no one ethnic group and if the people were loyal to the State and paid their taxes they could worship as they pleased.
- 1648 German migration to Poland continued.
- 1685 Persecuted Huguenots received in Brandenburg.

- 1745 Austria confirms Prussia's possession of Silesia by the Peace of Dresden.
- 1756 Seven Years' War - Prussia fights the coalition of Austria, France, Russia, Sweden, and the Empire. Peace of Hubertsburg. Prussia's possession of Silesia confirmed and in 1763 Prussia becomes a great power. General Education Act - compulsory schooling between ages of 5 years and 13 years.
- 1772 First partition of Poland between Prussia, Russia, and Austria.
- 1789 French Revolution begins.
- 1790 Lutherans persecuted by Austrian Roman Catholic Rulers; many fled to the more tolerant Prussian, Poland, and Silesia where the people were predominantly protestant.
- 1792 Prussia and France at war.
- 1793 Polish nobles treated the peasants (rural folk) as serfs. Second partition of Poland and Prussia receives Posen, Kalisch, Danzig and Thorn. Polish nobles brought under control.
- 1795 Third Partition of Poland. Prussia receives Mazovia, Warsaw, and territory between the Vistula, Bug and Niemen Rivers. Poland as a nation no longer existed for over 100 years. Russia received the greater portion of Poland. Law and order established, the country developed with German capital, industry, tradesmen and settlers. Prussian ex- soldiers settled on land in Posen. Peasants freed from compulsory Army service.
- 1797 France threatens Prussia. Conscription into the Army for 3 years' service instituted.

- 1806 Napoleon annihilates Prussia and exacts harsh penalties. Prussia loses all territories west of the Elbe (half its area and population). Hundreds of towns and villages were partially, some destroyed. Prussia was ordered to reduce its Army and to pay a crippling indemnity to France and Poland. Napoleon wished to crush Prussia completely, and French soldiers and officers occupied the poverty-stricken country. Prussian officials forced to give allegiance to France.
- 1807 Heinrich, Baron von Stein introduces emancipation of the serfs, and other reforms in urban administration and the civil service.
- 1808 King Friedrich Wilhelm III of Prussia decreed that he would head a State Ministry of Worship which would control all the churches in Prussia. Reform of the Army also began.

- 1830 30-4-1830 300th Anniversary of the Augsburg Confession. King of Prussia demanded that all evangelical churches use his Agenda. Compulsory education in Prussia - very high standard.
- 1834 New laws of compulsion passed. Objectors prosecuted, imprisoned and lands confiscated. Some pastors from both churches conformed, however a large number refused, hence pastors dismissed, and exiled.

SILESIA - Our Forefathers Homeland

Silesia, a small country in Central Eastern Europe, was bordered by Brandenburg, Poland, Austria, Moravia and Lausatia. Silesia was approximately 128 kilometres wide X 386 kilometres long, was once a Duchy ruled by the Dukes of Silesia, and part of the Polish Kingdom, ruled by Austria, Prussia and is again under Polish authority.

According to historians the name Silesia is derived from Silingae, a Vandal tribe who had migrated from the area now known as Scandinavia. In turn these people either migrated or were pushed westwards by the Goths and Slavs. Silesia during the Tenth Century was mainly Slavonic, and in 1,000 A.D. was attached ecclesiastically to Poland with the founding of a Bishopric in Breslau (Wrocław).

The King of Poland, Boleslaw III established each male member of his Piast dynasty on portions of the Polish territory, thus creating divisions. This subdivision continued from 1138 A.D. until the end of the 14th Century, which resulted in 18 Silesian principalities, each of course with its own ruler or prince.

Lower Silesia comprised the following: - Breslau (Wrocław), Brieg (Brzeg), Glogau (Głogów), Jauer (Jawor), Liegnitz (Legnica), Münsterberg (Ziębice), Oels (Olesnica), Schweidnitz (Świdnica) and Steinau (Ścinawa). Upper Silesia comprised the following: - Beuthen (Bytom), Falkenburg (Niemiędzy), Kosiel (Kozieł), Neisse (Nysa), Oppeln (Opole), Ratibor (Racibórz), Gross Strehlitz (Strzelce), Teschen (Cieszyn or Těšín) and Troppau (Opava).

Under the presidency of the senior Piast of the Silesian line there was a certain amount of unity. During this 250-year period the ethnic composition changed, as the various Piast rulers invited Germans from Flanders and other West German States to colonise and work the area. Considerable devastation of the area had been caused by the Tartar (Russian) invasion of 1241, which was checked at the Battle of Liegnitz. Henry, Duke of Silesia, established towns surrounded by many smaller villages in which to settle these, Germans. They cleared the forests, drained the swamps, and brought the land under cultivation. Mining and weaving industries were established. Breslau, refounded as a German town, became a member of the Hanseatic League. Lower Silesia was predominantly German but ruled by Piast Bohemian Kings against their own relatives - both Silesian and Polish Piast dynasties. During the middle 14th Century, Silesia was assigned to Bohemia and thus the Czech claim that Silesia was one of their Crown Lands. Bohemia (now Czechoslovakia) was predominantly Protestant during the latter years. The Piast dukes remained hereditary rulers until the line became extinct.

We then come to the Habsburg period. The Habsburg family were the rulers of the Holy Roman Empire with Austria the most powerful and largest of the Germanic States at that period.

In 1596, the Silesian estates accepted the Succession of Ferdinand of Habsburg.

Although the Silesian Piast dukes and princes claimed their rights were not affected, Silesian liberties in fact, were reduced.

Lower Silesia was almost solely Protestant when the Thirty Years' War erupted in 1618, thus the Silesians joined with the Bohemians in the struggle against the Habsburg dynasty.

During this period, Silesia was again plundered and brought to a virtual standstill, when hundreds lost their lives or migrated; Large numbers moved to the Posen area.

The Peace of Westphalia in 1648 provided freedom of religion in Silesia. The number of Protestant Churches increased from 3 to 128 after the Peace of Altranstadt in 1707.

They were, predominantly Lutheran with some Calvinist (Reformed) Churches; again, making Silesia the most protestant part of the Emperors Austrian dominions. Silesia during the late 17th and 18th centuries was the richest of all the Austrian provinces.

Now we come to the Prussian period.

Friedrich II (Frederick the Great) of Prussia demanded the return of Silesia (he based his claim on a pact made in 1537 between the Elector Joachim II of Brandenburg (a member of the Hohenzollern dynasty) and Prince Ferdinand of Liegnitz. This pact however was rescinded in 1686 - thus he really had no claim). Naturally, Maria Theresa of Austria refused, hence the Silesian wars.

At the end of the Seven Years' War, Silesia was firmly in the Prussian Camp, which was welcomed by the German and protestant Silesians. The old Estates were abolished, an efficient administration was introduced, and economic development progressed. In 1815 Saxon Lausatia (homeland of the Wends (Sorbs)) was incorporated into Silesia.

Lower Silesia, our ancestor's homeland, was by this time purely German (although I suspect there would have been some inter marriage between the various ethnic groups which were known as 'Silesians'), and predominantly Lutheran. In Upper Silesia however, the population was mixed - the townspeople in the main, German; the rural sector, some of the miners and the unskilled industrial workers were mainly Polish or of mixed German/Polish ancestry who spoke a dialect interspersed with German words and described as "Wasser-polnisch".

The borders remained static for about 50 years or so. After World War I the borders were changed but not as dramatically as the changes which occurred after World War II.

Silesia was again devastated by the retreating German armies and especially by the Russian troops. Churches and graveyards were pillaged some of which still show the scars. By 1950 the German Silesians were expelled, and Silesia was extensively Polonized and brought completely under the Polish Communist Government. Most of these Poles were transplanted from East Poland which Russia annexed.

The Lusatian remnant of Silesia was returned to Saxony and is now in the D.D.R. (East Germany).

During the post war period, collective farming was instituted; that and the lack of modern machinery together with a lack of incentive, all resulted in poor returns. This once prosperous area was completely run down. However, over the next few years much changed and apparently conditions improved.

FAMILY NUMBERING

Each person in this book has a number to help identify their generation and family line. The "Generation" does not relate to residency in Australia. The children of the migrant male have been numbered chronologically from 1 onwards. The children of each successive generation are linked to their ancestors by simply showing their position in the family.

For example, the number for Kevin Dean Maywald, son of Thomas Alfred Maywald is 1.3.3.7.6.

The digits make it clear that he is the fifth generation from the migrant couple. Kevin is the sixth child of the seventh child of the third child of the third child of the migrant couple. His children are prefixed with his number 1.3.3.7.6.1., etc. 1(2) indicates that it is of second marriage.

1. Carl Gottlob and Johanna Helene Bartsch, our ancestors, were born in the early 1800's in Ransen, East Germany. The following information has been compiled by Rodney & Kevin Maywald from the JOHN Descendants, the F.W. and J.C. Loffler Family 1848 - 1988, the Friedrich Wilhelm & Henriette Karoline Kranz Family (THE CIRCLE GROWS), the Solway Family Tree, the Johann Gottlob Schrapel Family 1793 – 1977, the Imelda Schultz Family Tree and the Descendants Charts, and other people who were willing to share their family information with Rodney and myself. We apologise for any errors or lack of information reference about some families but have typed all information that we have received.

The Maywald family has been in Australia since 1844 with the Family coming over on the George Washington. At the coming of the Prussian family to Australia, they also immigrated to America about the same time. No connection has been found between the American and Australian Maywald Families as far as we are aware.

CARL GOTTLÖB MAYWALD was born on 11 June 1809 in Ransen (now Reszow), on the River Oder in Silesia (now Rzeszów, Poland). He was a carpenter. He and his family migrated to Bethany in South Australia on the "George Washington" possibly on 13th September 1844. Carl was naturalised in 1847. They later moved to Light Pass, where Carl bought a farming property, Block 199, Hundreds of Belvidere, which they proceeded to build into a farm and vineyard. The farmhouse was built of wattle and daub, and later a separate kitchen and bedrooms were added. Some of the floors were packed with clay. The house stood till about 1982, when his Great-Great Grandson Ken Groves, (then the owner), had it demolished. The garden was quite extensive, with roses growing over the picket gate and geraniums and hollyhocks among the roses. Almond trees grew along two sides of the "house block" and several Bay trees grew in the garden. Huge pepper trees cast shade on parts of the house. Carl married Johanna Helene Bartsch in Germany and lived in South Australia until her death on 3 July 1855.

Johanne Eleonore Maywald married Johann Friedrich August Schrapel (fourth child of Gottlob and Dorothea SCHRAPEL, born in Germany) in South Australia on 9th November 1847. It is interesting to note that the second marriage of Johann Friedrich August Schrapel's Father was witnessed by Viarl Maywaldt in the District of Adelaide in 1853 (Viarl's name is not mentioned in this book at any stage)

They purchased land in Tanunda where they built their home of hand-made mud bricks. Beneath this home was a large cellar, used as a storage for homemade wine. Their home is still standing, though not lived in. August employed himself as a gardener and brick maker. They spent all their lives at Tanunda where they raised a family of thirteen children. Two of these children died at an early age. Eleonore and August were members of the Langmeil Church Congregation.

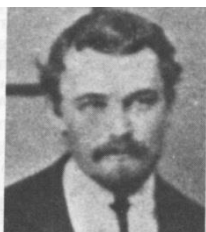

August was almost 18 years old when he arrived in South Australia with his parents, one brother and four sisters, on the George Washington in 1844. It was about four years later that he married Eleonore.

August died on the 13th of May 1884, at the age of 58. Eleonore died at Ebenezer on the 18th of February 1906, at the age of 78. They are both buried at the Langmeil Church Cemetery, Tanunda South Australia.

August Schrapel, the oldest child of August and Eleonore, was born at Tanunda in 1849. He lived and worked at Tanunda until 1871, when he went to Adelaide, where he established a blacksmith business on Kensington Road in Kensington. Around the middle 1870's August owned about 80 acres of land in Kensington near where the Chelsea Picture Theatre now stands.

On the 29th of January 1875, August married Wilhelmina Sturm, at Birdwood, South Australia. Pastor C.A. Hensel was the officiating minister and the witnesses to their marriage were C. Sturm, a cabinetmaker of Birdwood, T. Schrapel, a farmer of Tanunda, and J. Schrapel, a blacksmith from Neukirch. Wilhelmina was the daughter of Carl August Ludwig Sturm and his wife Johanne Dorothea Sovie (nee Kaesler), from Blumberg, now Birdwood, S.A. One of Wilhelmina's grandchildren has in her possession the dress worn by Wilhelmina at her marriage to August. Wilhelmina was confirmed on the 27th of December 1868 by Pastor C.A. Hensel in the Friedensberg Church. Friedensberg is near Springton, S.A.

August's blacksmith business in Adelaide closed about 1924. August and Wilhelmina's home was in Alpha Street, Kensington Park. This home has been demolished to make way for homes for the aged. August and Wilhelmina had a family of seven children. Both August and Wilhelmina are buried in the Payneham Cemetery, in Adelaide.

Friedrich and Louise.

Friedrich Wilhelm was born at Tanunda in 1852, third son of August and Elenore. In about 1870, he married Louise Heinrich and went to live at South Kilkerran, on Yorke Peninsula, S.A., to farm section 122. It is thought that initially Louise's father assisted Friedrich in obtaining land. Louise was the first Heinrich to own land in the Hundreds of Kilkerran which was Section 30 purchased in her name on 21st October 1872, but this was transferred to Friedrich Qualmann on 25th May 1875. As pioneers the Schrapels had a hard struggle to clear away dense scrub and to begin farming under difficult conditions. Without fences to keep stock from straying, horses were hobbled at night. Friedrich was falsely accused of killing his neighbour's horse, but the court found that its death was due to a broken back caused by the swinging of a loose hobble chain as the animal ran. Here he cleared the land which had scrub so thick that the children didn't dare go away from the house for fear that they would get lost. Friedrich grew mainly wheat on his farm, on which they lived for all their lives. Friedrich and Louise had a family of six children.

After years of toil and perseverance Friedrich and Louise became established and with the aid of their two sons who remained in the district, were successful in their farming enterprises. The four daughters married and left the area except Clara who died shortly after her marriage and was buried at South Kilkerran.

As Grandmother, Louise was much loved by her grandchildren who remember her as being a keen gardener who had beautiful indoor ferns. Louise was the eldest child of Friedrich Wilhelm and Louise Christine Elisabeth Heinrich, and was born at Schonborn. At her baptism on 12th May, her godparents were Johanne Juliane Hoffmann, Julius Gotthelf Heinrich, and Henriette Caroline Hagen. After completing her education and Confirmation at Schonborn, Louise helped her parents until her marriage to Friedrich. Both Friedrich and Louise are buried in the South Kilkerran Cemetery, S.A.

Jean's father bought Alwyn home for a meal when Jean was fifteen years old and was working for the man next door who owned an Orchard.

When Jean and Alwyn got married, they moved to the Lithgow area, and then moved back to Orange out to Warren, Nevetire Area. They then moved back to Orange and then to South Queensland. They then moved back to Orange where Alwyn worked as a Grave Digger for some time. They then packed up to move to Coffs Harbour area and then moved to Dubbo where Jean's parents had recently shifted to.

Kleinig, Cyril Nathaniel (1912–1982)

by Leigh Edmonds

Cyril Nathaniel Kleinig (1912-1982), pilot and airline manager, was born on 19 November 1912 at Roseworthy, South Australia, third child of South Australian-born parents Friedrich Nathaniel Kleinig, chaff merchant, and his wife Louisa Bertha, née Linke. He was educated at Scotch College, Adelaide (1919-29), where he played in the first XVIII and rowed in the first VIII, and later at the South Australian School of Mines and Industries and at Perth Technical College.

One of many young men who became interested in aviation during this period, in 1930 Kleinig began voluntary weekend work at Horrie Miller's hangar at Adelaide Airport to gain experience. He also took flying lessons and studied for an engineer's licence. He then started flying for MacRobertson-Miller Aviation Co. Ltd on regular routes and charter flights in South Australia. During the worst of the Depression, he took part in a flying circus that toured country towns to keep the company in business. When MMA transferred its main operations to Western Australia in 1934, he remained to manage its operations in South Australia, serving as chief pilot and engineer. On 2 December 1939 at St Stephen's Lutheran Church, Adelaide, he married Rona Elsa Thiele, a clerk.

In 1939 MMA's services were centralised in Western Australia and Kleinig transferred to Perth as a pilot-engineer. He was appointed assistant managing director in 1947. That year he was the first pilot of the Air Beef scheme, which transported beef by air from abattoirs in the North-West. In 1955 MMA amalgamated with Airlines (WA) Ltd to form MacRobertson Miller Airlines Ltd; Kleinig was appointed to the board as managing director. When the airline became a wholly owned subsidiary of Ansett Transport Industries Ltd in 1969, he became general manager of MacRobertson Miller Airline Services. He retired in 1977, having overseen the introduction of the turboprop and jet airliners that revolutionised transport in Western Australia, particularly in remote areas.

Kleinig was a perfectionist who liked to experiment with new methods. A leader in the travel industry, he was widely recognised for his role in developing tourism in Western Australia. He was a fellow (1959) and councillor of the (Chartered) Institute of Transport; president (1964-66) and a life member of the Perth division of the Australian Institute of Management; an honorary fellow (1966) of the Institute of Sales and Marketing Executives; a member (from 1967) of the Western Australian Transport Advisory Council; president (1971-73) of the Federated Chambers of Commerce of Western Australia; and chairman (1973-75) of the Western Australian branch of the Australian National Travel Association. In 1979 he was appointed AO.

Serving the community with enthusiasm and dedication, Kleinig was president (1966-67) of the Rotary Club of Perth and governor (1979-80) of Rotary District 945, as well as vice-president of the Royal West Australian Institute for the Blind. He listed his recreations as gardening, fishing and boating. Survived by his wife, and their son and daughter, he died of coronary artery disease on 17 February 1982 at Nedlands and was cremated with Uniting Church forms. In July the first Fokker F-28-4000 to enter the fleet of Airlines of Western Australia was named after him.

Family flies in for 100th

NANCY Kleinig, a "gracious lady with a lot of strength," celebrated her 100th birthday at Blakehurst Nursing Home last week with friends and family, some from interstate.

Mrs Kleinig, born Nancy Haymes in North Melbourne on December 9, 1909, was one of six children to Samuel Haymes, a watchmaker and jeweller, and his wife Edith. She married air force officer Kenneth Kleinig in 1942, and in 1947 they moved to Sans Souci where they stayed.

Mrs Kleinig worked as a bookkeeper and volunteer assistant at a baby health clinic.

Mr Kleinig died in 1990 and in 2004 Mrs Kleinig moved to the nursing home. Her niece, Barbara Haymes, said: "They were absolute soul mates.

"She has a fantastic memory and has kept in contact with her many relatives in Victoria, South Australia and Western Australia.

"She is extremely outgoing and has always been terribly interested in other people, particularly the staff at the nursing home. She's had a few knocks in her life but she has always had a tremendous acceptance. If something bad happens she doesn't say 'why me' but 'let's get on with it.'"

Emma and Michael.

Emma was born on the 25th of March 1859. On 22nd April 1887, at the St. John's Lutheran Church, Tanunda, she married Michael Dallwitz. Michael was born at Angaston on the 17th of July 1860, the 12th son of Johann Dallwitz and his wife Maria Dorothea (nee Hantschke). Michael was the youngest member of the family, the older brothers and sisters being born in Germany prior to the family's migration to Australia. Michael was baptised on the 22nd of July 1860. Emma and Michael set up their home at Ebenezer on 50 acres of land. There were 25 acres of grapes and 25 acres of mixed farm. To supplement his income, Michael carted flour with a horse and wagon from the Stockwell Mill to the rail link at Freeling. He also did share-farming at Ebenezer, working the land with a horse and single-furrow plough. In later years Michael was a sharefarmer on the Yalumba Vineyards at Stockwell. Emma died in 1914 and their single daughter, Elisabeth, cared for Michael until his death in 1953. Both Emma and Michael are buried in the Ebenezer Lutheran Church Cemetery, S.A.

Carl was born on 10th October 1839? in Ransen, near Heinan in the Province of Silesia, in the Kingdom of Prussia, and migrated with his parents Carl Gottlob and Johanna Helene, landing at Port Adelaide on 13th September 1844. On the 21st of September 1865, Carl married Maria Rosine John in the Ebenezer Lutheran Church. Pastor Christian Maschmedt officiated. Witnesses at the wedding were J. Maywald, Schmidt of Lights Pass, and J. Ch. John of Hors? On the 28th of October 1865, Carl was naturalised at the age of 26, in Tanunda. Maria was born at Bethany on the 22nd of July 1846 and baptised by Pastor Kaval of Langmeil Lutheran Church.

Rosine attended the Light's Pass Lutheran School, and in 1855 accompanied her parents when they shifted to the farm property at Stockwell. She would have worked on the farm, helping to sow crops, as well, as caring for the younger children. Rosine was the first child of Johann Gottlieb John and Maria Rosine (nee Wirsing). Rosine and Carl settled near Stockwell where he worked as a farmer, and where their two eldest children were born. In 1884 the family became foundation members of St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Point Pass, where he established his business as a carpenter and undertaker. In 1891 they were farming near Eudunda where, two years later, he began to work as a carpenter. Carl was a most regular attendant and consistent member of the Laura Church of the Evangelical Lutheran Immanuel Synod of S.A., and derived much pleasure from his musical studies, being a proficient violinist.

Droughts, poor harvests, and a downturn in the economy during the 1890's were probably the reasons why Rosine and Carl decided to shift to the north, where they settled at a place known as "Tom Cat Hill". In 1910 their address was given as Herbert Street, Laura.

Rosine passed away on the 19th of October 1913, Carl survived her a further seven years and three months and passed away on the 3rd of January 1921 at his son's (Carl Gotthold) residence. They are both buried in the Pine Creek Cemetery at Appila.

LAURA STANDARD NEWSPAPER

4th January 1921

An old colonist and highly esteemed resident of Laura, in the person of Mr. Carl Friedrich Maywald died at his son's residence (Mr. C. G. Maywald), Laura on January 3. The deceased who was born in Germany on October 10, 1839, came to South Australia with parents, landing at Port Adelaide on September 13, 1844. His parents were among the early bands of settlers who emigrated from Germany so as being to obtain, under the British Flag, religious liberty, which had denied them under Prussian tyranny. In Hodder's "Life of G. F. Angas" is related the story of emigration of these German settlers, a story full of incident, "showing remarkable fidelity to conscience on the part of a persecuted people under specially trying circumstances and sustained philanthropy on that of their public-spirited benefactor." The first contingent of these settlers who chose voluntary exile to obtain religious freedom, accompanied by Pastor Kavell, arrived in South Australia in November 183, and came from Klemzig, in Prussia. Being desirous of settling down as a body of agriculturists, arrangements were made by Mr. Flaxman, Mr. Angas' representative, for them to settle on some land on the banks of the Torrens to which they gave the name of their native town. Encouraged by reports of the pioneers, others followed, and in 1844 the parents of subject took up their residence at Klemzig. After spending a few years there, they removed, with others of the same nationality and faith, to Tanunda. After serving his apprenticeship to the carpentering trade, Mr. Maywald started business on his own account at Eudunda, and afterwards removed to Point Pass. In 1899 he removed to the Laura district where he continued to reside until his demise, making his home with his children after the decease of his wife in October 1913. He continued to work at his trade until a few weeks prior to his death. He was a most regular attendant and consistent member of the Laura Church of the Evangelical Lutheran Immanuel Synod of S.A., and derived much pleasure from his musical studies, being a proficient violinist. He leaves a family of six sons – Messrs. C. G. Maywald, of Laura, E. F. Maywald, of Appila, J. T. Maywald, of Yorketown, G. R. Maywald, of Appila, H. G. N. Maywald, of Appila, W. C. Maywald, of Booleroo Centre. – three daughters – Mesdames J. H. Sauer, of Neale's Flat, W. Reichelt, of Laura, G. Rohrlac, of Laura. Forty-nine grandchildren and one great grandchild, a stepbrother, Mr. W. Maywald, of Nuriootpa, and a stepsister, Mrs. Schick of New South Wales, also survive.

Martha was born near Stockwell on the 10th of August 1869 and baptised there in the Salem Lutheran Church. During 1871, she accompanied her parents to a farm near Eudunda and attended the Lutheran School at Emmaus. On the 2nd of May 1895 Martha married Johann Gustav Herman Sauer, son of Heinrich Gustav Sauer and Charlotte Ernstine (nee Scheibsch) in St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Point Pass. They were faithful members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Neales Flat, and were fortunate to celebrate their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary, before Martha died on the 20th of January 1947 at the age of 77 1/2 years. Herman survived her until the 4th of August 1958. They are both buried in the cemetery behind St. Paul's now called Trinity Church, Neales Flat.

As a young man he owned a motorcycle and sidecar which he rode into Crystal Brook to work for the Wheat Board. After marriage, Bert and Rose went to live in his parent's house and stayed there till about the time of their first child's birth. They then shifted to Crystal Brook, and Bert remained there for the rest of his life. Rose and Albert moved into Crystal Brook, where work was hard to get, and Bert turned his hand to anything he could get. He eventually obtained full-time employment with the Engineering & Water Supply Department, but this meant that he left home on Sunday evenings, and only returned on Friday. When he retired from the E & W.S., he helped at the local bowling club, and played bowls until ill health forced him to give up. Albert died on the 30th of October 1973 after which Rose remained in her home until 1981, when she moved into the Masonic Village, Adelaide. Rose died on the 6th of May 1998 at the Masonic Lodge Hospital.

Bert's parents were John & Elizabeth (nee Crouch) Button. John was a child of William Button who was born in Westleton, Suffolk and the story goes that he was a sailor who jumped ship before March 1850 when he married Margaret Flangan at Willunga. Margaret arrived in South Australia on the 5th of October 1848 on the "Roman Emporer", part of a shipment of Irish orphan girls brought out to be domestic servants.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Stephen & Charlotte (nee Brook) Crouch. Stephen farmed at Merriton but his wife was originally from Ninfield in Sussex and arrived in South Australia on the "Appolline" in 1840. Bert is buried at Crystal Brook, South Australia.

Dael announced her engagement to John Wylie on 23rd August 1997, and live at 26 Teusner Drive, Morphett Vale, S.A. Dael answered to many names in her lifetime. She was Dael, Daelsipoo, Daelsi, Auntie Dael but the proudest one of all was the shortest 'Mum'. Dael was a daughter, a sister, an auntie, a good friend to many and most importantly a mother. She was born in Naracoorte on 26 August 1968 to Malcolm and Lorraine; the youngest child of three, with two older brothers...Grant and Ashley.

Lorraine and Malcolm knew this would be their last child and desperately wanted a girl and after a long stay in hospital Dael was born and everyone cried with happiness, even the Dr.

They moved from Naracoorte to Taillem Bend, to Hill Crest and then to Christies Beach in 1985.

As Dael was growing up she was a real mum's girl and would tell her mum everything, much to the irritation of her brothers and they were quick to let her know they were upset.

Grant and Ashley loved to tease their sister...she was particularly attached to her dolls and one that she carted everywhere under her arm. Dael told the story of the time they went on holiday to Mt Gambier, and Grant and Ashley got her doll and took it in the sea and drowned it and the doll spent the rest of the holiday hanging above the wood stove in the cabin drying out. Another time they went to Wallaroo and by the time they arrived it was the wee small hrs of the morning and the boys had convinced her that the house they were staying in was haunted and she wouldn't go in, much to the delight of the boys and the demented frustration of their mother.

Christmas's and family holidays were things that were special to her and she had many fond memories of these times.

Dael attended Gilles Plain primary school, Kildare College and later when they moved down south she went to Christies Beach High School. She liked creative writing, poetry, paper tole, and craft; she used to write her mum little notes with lovely poems. She also enjoyed volunteering at the school canteen and the community centre.

Dael worked at Minda Home and then at Waterworth Nursing Home (Coles and the Clarendon hotel)

It was while she was working at Minda and Waterworth that she decided this was what she loved doing and she wanted to make a difference to the lives of the intellectually disabled people that she worked with, so she decided to go to uni.

Dael's naivety invited pranks on the job. One time at Waterworth it was Dael's job to help some of the residents to clean their false teeth. One lady wasn't cooperating and as much as Dael tried this lady wasn't going to let her have her teeth as it turned out that lady didn't actually have false teeth and eventually the staff confessed. Another day she was set to pairing up Mr X's socks. After some time and much frustration on her part Mr X said quietly, "Its ok luv they don't stay in pairs, I've only got one leg". Thankfully Dael too could see the funny side.

Dael went back to school to complete year 12 then to TAFE where she completed certificates in community services and Aged Care. She then went on to Uni where she studied Bachelor of Applied Science Disability.

She loved her nieces and nephews to bits and was very involved in their lives particularly when they were young. Dael was at the birth of 2 of them and always around and very helpful when any of the babies were brought home, coming to stay over and lend a hand. That was our Dael.

Dael met John in September 1996 and they announced their engagement in August 1997. They planned and had Emma in Feb 1998. The absolute highlight of her life was when Emma was born, Dael was delighted to have a baby of her own, and she was a lovely mum. Emma was her sun and her moon and her stars.

As a single mum no matter how hard things got for her in her own life, she would always reach out to others she felt was in need and was prepared to lend a hand, look after their kids or whatever she could do to help. This was the kind of person she was. An empty tummy, a broken heart, just need a hug or wipe away a tear Auntie Dael would fix it.

Emma remembers when her friends would say that they loved going to her house because her mum was so nice to them. Emma is getting married to Bradley

Rodney attended St. Anthony's school for two years, and then went to Solomontown Primary School until Grade 7, when he went to Port Pirie High School for two years.

His first job was temporary as a Telegram Boy in the Port Pirie Post Office over the Christmas period, but was made permanent early in the year, and was a Telegram Boy, Postie and sorted mail in the mail room and private boxes.

Rod stayed with the Post Office for approximately 18 months, when he joined the S.A. Railways as a Junior Porter and stayed there for twelve months prior to joining the Regular Army. Rod enlisted in the Army (Service Number 43898) on 5th September 1965, and did his rookie training at Silver City, Kapooka. From there, he went to the School of Signals, Balcombe Victoria for aptitude testing, and General Duties until allocated to a course. After the Christmas period he was posted to the School of Signals, Ingleburn, N.S.W., where he attended Marconi School of Wireless, East Hills for Operator Radio training. September 1966, he was then posted to 7 Signal Regiment, Cabarlah, Queensland to do an Operator Signals course. Whilst on this course, he met his future bride, Patricia, third child of John David and Edna (nee Jackson) Barry. Rod and Pat were married at the Catholic Church, Bacchus Marsh Victoria on 20th April 1968. Later that year they were posted to Singapore for two years. Rod's home base was Cabarlah, and from there he was posted to Vietnam, Singapore, Darwin, and Melbourne, always returning to Cabarlah after each posting. During his second posting to Melbourne, he retired, 1st December 1986, and they bought the General Store at Yaapect, Vic. Whilst in Darwin, Rod worked with Woolworths for several months part-time, and worked at McDonalds, Broadmeadows as a cleaner for a short time. Rod got his Heavy Articulated Licence in Rainbow, and carted grain for Ian Roll, Tren Fisher, Nev & Trev Petschel & Yaapect Farming Co (Fishers) during harvests around the Yaapect area. He also worked for Ian Klemm on the Silos loading trains and building sheds.

As there were no married women in the forces when Pat & Rod married, Pat was discharged from the Army on her marriage, but during the first trip to Singapore, she enlisted as Permanent C.M.F., and was one of the first married women in the Armed Forces. She stayed in the Army until after Rod came back from Vietnam, Christmas Eve, 1971. During Rod's career, Pat also worked as a waitress at Motels in the Toowoomba area.

Jack as he was known was born on a farm near Eudunda and baptised by Pastor Maschmedt. He was confirmed on the 17th of October 1885 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Point Pass. Jack learnt his trade as a carpenter and worked with his father until his parents left for the north. Jack moved to Yorke Peninsula where he found work as a carpenter, cabinet maker and wheelwright near Yorketown, and was here in 1921. On the 5th of February 1902 he married Olive Maywald, daughter of Johann Traugott Maywald and Anna Eliza Valentian (nee Niquet) in South Australia.

In 1923 Jack and his family lived on a farm at Oaklands and during the depression years took whatever work was available, such as clearing scrub, bag sewing, stone picking and salt scraping. In 1939 Jack and Olive left for Port Kembla where their three sons had found work and where he too found employment as a carpenter. They made their home at Lake Heights, where during his later years he worked for his son. Jack died on the 18th of September 1947 and was buried in the Wollongong Cemetery. Jack's widow survived him a further 10 years.

David, a twin to Teresa, was born at Booleroo Centre where he was also baptised and was educated at Appila. David enlisted in the A.I.F. and saw service in the Middle East.

On the 10th of March 1943, he married Nellie Elsley in the Renmark Methodist Church. After his discharge from the Army, he found employment as a Postal employee in Renmark. He became a member of the Freemasons Lodge, the R.A.O.B., and at Port Pirie became a member of Lions International. They lived in Port Pirie where they were both active members of the Senior Citizens Club. In 1994, Digger was Secretary of Northern Areas Past Presidents at Lawn Bowls. Nellie passed away in their kitchen on 23rd December 1994 after suffering from a heart attack.

Ken Madigans Eulogy for Digger

Today we remember and pay tribute to, one of Australia's heroes of WW2, David James Maywald, better known to those who 'Digger' are here today, as simply.

'Digger' was but 20 years of age, when despite being rejected previously by the Army due to heart concerns, he was finally accepted by the 48th. Battalion of the Australian Military Forces on the 16/5/1940.

'Digger' wanted desperately to serve his country on active service and prove he was a good Aussie. On 1/2/1941 he enlisted in the AIF and was posted to the 2/43 Battalion with the serial No. SX11188 and after intense training, embarked for North Africa, landing as reinforcements for the 9th. Division in early May and took part in the famous siege of Tobruk, digging into the sand and rock of the harsh desert and holding up the advance of the mighty German Africa Corps for many months.

'Digger' was now one of the 'desert rats' of Tobruk and a part of Australia's history.

He lost mates in this battle, many of them falling by his side, the pain of losing them stayed with him to the end, the history books I loaned him about this battle brought back too many sad memories for him to read them.

'Digger' was to be discharged due to ill health and injury, but he refused, preferring to stay with his unit and stand beside his mates.

'Digger' was also at the defining battle of El Alamein, where the Germany Army suffered its first defeat, but at great cost, after the breakthrough on the 5/11/42, his Battalion collected and then buried 105 of their fallen comrades and because of this conflict, suffered a total of 365 casualties.

He was attached to the Mortar unit, as a range taker, a generous name for someone brave enough to venture out into no man's land, alone, dig in and identify the target and the range while not attracting too much fire from the enemy!

'Digger' said he enjoyed this, as he always considered himself a loner and if he did it himself, he would know it was done properly!

He arrived back in Australia in March 1943, for 3 weeks leave before leaving for jungle training and embarking for the War against the Japanese in New Guinea.

While on this brief leave he married his long-time sweetheart Nellie in Adelaide on the 10 March, a true war time marriage of two young lovers who could never be sure if they would ever meet again. The wedding dress was made by the family, with the material made available through the generosity of Nellie's sister, who despite preparing to marry herself, but put her sister first. The marriage lasted 50 years.

"Digger fought in the jungles of New Guinea and took part in the famous battles of Lae, Finschafen and Sattelberg, relinquishing his job of range finder in the Mortar unit and was then transferred to Intelligence at HQ.

After returning to Australia in 1944 for further training and rest, his Batt. Embarked for Morotai, Borneo and landed on the 16 April 1945 to face the Japanese Army once again.

After serving his country for 1803 days, 1119 of them overseas on active service, he was given an honourable discharge on the 8/1/1946.

Digger became cross whenever I suggested he was a hero, but if he is not a hero, I don't know who is!

He said he enjoyed the Army life, not the marching or saluting, but the comradeship, as it has been said, 'these men were closer than brothers.

'Digger' continued his distinguished career in the Army reserve, receiving a commission and passing on his vast knowledge to the younger trainee soldiers, he was always a fine teacher.

I extend my sincere condolences to the family and friends; our life today would not have been the same without men and soldiers like 'Digger'.

Anna was born in Eudunda on the 1st of March 1878 and baptised by Pastor Maschmedt on the 29th of March 1878. On the 4th of October 1891 she was confirmed in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Point Pass. Anna moved with her parents to the Appila district as a young woman. In 1905 she married Wilhelm Heinrich Julius Reichelt, son of Friedrich Wilhelm Reichelt and Caroline Johanna Wilhelmine (nee Pahl). Willi was educated at Pine Creek (Appila) Day School (near Laura), some distance from the Reichelt family home east of Laura. He boarded with friends during the week, and walking home (6 to 7 Miles) each Friday after school. When the family attended church on Sunday Morning, Willi stayed behind with friends ready for school on Monday. Being the eldest child of the family and having to help his parents, he became a capable team driver (six horses) at a very early age, and with his brother Carl used to do the ploughing. Willi drove the horses and Carl operated the plough with help of a rope tied to the lever, to enable him to adjust the depth. After school he continued to work on the farm. When he was married, he was given the choice of two farms by his father. He chose the land in the hills, West of Laura, continuing to farm there for about 25 years. They later (1927) moved to Blyth where Willie, as he was known, had bought a farm after he sold the Laura property. Willie never accrued a great amount of wealth, the reason being, that he was a generous and kind person, always ready to help anyone in need. During the drought of 1914 he supplied fodder to many around the district, not expecting payment. His belief was that if you had, you shared. He and his family were members of the "Gloria Dei" Lutheran Church. This building was on a farm about 2 miles west of Appila, S.A. which meant a journey of about 12 miles (20km) each Sunday in an old Chevrolet car. When his health failed in the early 1930's, Anna and Willie moved into the town of Blyth, where he passed away on the 10th of May 1934. Willie suffered a great deal with cancer in the mouth. Anna survived him until the 10th of June 1945. They are both buried in the Blyth Cemetery.

Wilhelm Christoph Maywald was born on Christmas Day at Eudunda, and baptised on the 1st of January, 1887 at Point Pass. His sponsors were Pauline Drauz, Carl Leditschke and Anna Krah. Wilhelm moved to the Appila area with his parents, where he learnt his trade as a carpenter. Will, as he was called, worked for his brother Charlie for many years. He married Susan Baldock on 17th October 1911, at Laura, a daughter of Edward Bee Baldock and Harriet (nee Trimming) and settled in Laura, where despite the rigors of the depression they led a happy and full life. During the 1920's Will and his family joined the Laura Baptist Church and when the family moved to the city, Will transferred his membership to the Mitcham Baptist Church. He also became a member of Rotary. At the time of his father's death in 1921, he was living at Booleroo Centre.

Will found employment with the Highways Department and was involved with bridge building. He later worked for his son Chris and whilst there amazed some of his workmates as he never used strong language, the nearest he ever got to swearing was "Caesar's Ghost" and was known by that nickname amongst his colleagues.

In 1946, after the death of his wife (7th December 1946 at Mitcham), his daughter Myrtle and her husband and son came to live with him at Mitcham. They later moved to Clarence Gardens, where on the 31st of December 1977, Will passed away and was buried with Susan in Centennial Park.

Chris was born and baptised at Booleroo Centre. After leaving school he worked on farms in the mid-north, before moving to Adelaide with his family in 1936. In 1940 he joined the R.A.A.F. in which he served 6 years. Chris married Nell Wass on the 7th of July, 1945 in Sydney. Following his discharge, he began his own fibrous plaster manufacturing business. In 1953 he bought a 3,000-acre property at Sherlock which entailed much hard work by the family. However, it became a prosperous concern which he sold in 1977 and retired in Wellington, South Australia.

Witnesses at Johann and Annie's wedding were Charles W. Niquet, Watchmaker of Gawler Town, Wilhelm Luhrs, Farmer of Lights Pass, and a Freeholder from Tanunda. The wedding, on 2nd July 1867, was held in the Lutheran Church, Lights Pass. At the time of the wedding, Johann was a Blacksmith residing at Craneford, and Annie was from Lights Pass. In 1870, they were residents of Hundreds of English Section No. 110, in the District of Kapunda.

It appears that on Friday, 30th December 1887, Johann Traugott was kicked in the stomach by a horse whilst working for Mellor Bros. as a blacksmith in Jamestown. He was apparently shoeing a festive horse, which in its struggles threw him violently to the ground, causing injuries to the abdomen and intestines. He was in the care of a Dr. Penland. To worsen matters, Annie was in most delicate health, and shock of the accident to John had the worst possible affect, and she was in a precarious position. They had a large family at the time, the eldest of whom was about eighteen and the two youngest just a week old. John died on Thursday, 5th January 1888. His funeral, held on Friday, 6th January 1888, was very largely attended by friends of John's, as he was one of the pioneer residents of the town. He was buried by the Rev. J. White in grave No. 21, Block B, Row N. The cause of death was rupture of Intestines Peritonitis. A. Zimmermann of Jamestown was the Undertaker, and the Assistant Registrar was Edmund John Eyre of Jamestown. Anne was in a critical condition at the time of the funeral. They carried John's coffin out of the window so that his wife could not see it, as she was very ill from shock and milk fever, however she lived to marry again and have another child. On one document his name was "John Irongarth".

Annie was the eldest daughter of Johann Pieter Nique' and Annie Eliza (nee Noble), (Johann's second marriage), and she had 3 stepbrothers/sisters, and 13 brothers/sisters.

Annie was born in Kapunda, S.A. 1st March 1870. On the 20th of January 1897, she married Herbert in Dowingville, S.A., son of Frank Wasley Roberts and Elizabeth (nee Doble), farmers of Gawler Hills. They were married in the house of Herbert's father, and witnesses were Hedley Louis Roberts, farmer of Dowingville and Olive Maud Maywald of Dowingville. Robert Crump was the Officiating Minister. It was a double wedding, as Annie's sister Alice, married Herbert's Brother Jim.

Herbert was born at Gawler Hills, S.A., and died in 1937, in St. John's Hospital, Subiaco, W.A.

Annie and Herbert went by boat (Wollara) to W.A. They lived at Leederville, where Herbert got Typhoid. Monger's Lake was very unhealthy at that time. They went to Beverley when Clarrie was 6 months old (1904), in a dray laden with their goods and chattels and a cow named "Topsey" tied behind. They moved onto virgin country which when developed became an excellent wheat and sheep farming area.

Herbert, his wife Annie, Hedley Roberts and his wife, Ethel Maywald developed and share-farmed about 607,029 Hectares until they sold the property in 1919. Herb and his family apparently stayed on the property they had sold and worked in the district until about 1924. Herb and his sons, Frank and Clarrie took up newly released marginal country at Bullfinch, on the fringe of the wheat growing area of the state. Herb and Clarrie were allocated and subsequently developed adjoining properties. Herb spent any spare time he had building a mud brick house in the town of Bullfinch, 4.8 kilometres from his farm. In the intervening years, Herb's family resided in the former Bullfinch Police Station, complete with lockup, which conveniently became vacant at the time of their arrival. Having been a farmer all of his working life Herb was a tremendous help to new settlers in the district who knew little or nothing about farming. On one occasion he and his youngest son, Reginald, voluntarily toured throughout the district showing new settlers how to set up their harvesters.

The first good crop Bullfinch farmers had was in 1928. This was followed by 2 lean years and then a bumper crop in 1931. This was the best crop Herb had ever sown and tragically, because of the depression, wheat was at a rock bottom price of 10 cents a bushel. Herb was devastated and could not be encouraged to take any further interest in his farm. Consequently, his land was taken over by his son Clarrie. Annie who had cooked, cleaned and kept house for her big family for all those years continued to run a happy home and could always be relied upon to provide a room and a meal for the numerous family and friends that dropped in to see her. At Christmas relatives, of which there were many, gathered at her home to celebrate the occasion. Like the good Methodists that many of them were, they celebrated Christmas at Robert's without consuming a drop of alcohol. When Annie's health began to decline Clarrie and his wife, who had lived out on their farm, moved in with her. Annie died at her home in Bullfinch, W.A. on 24th August 1942, with all of her family present except Frank and Reginald, who were in the Army. She was 72 years old and was buried in the Methodist section of the Southern Cross Cemetery, the Reverend C.F. Lambert officiated.

Herb died of cancer, and there was only a small group who attended his funeral. He is buried in Grave 91, Row B.A., Wesleyan Section, Karrakatta.

Frank was born on 9th November 1900 at Meckering, W.A., and died 29th February 1975 at the Hollywood Hospital, Redlands, W.A. Frank was a shearer in the Beverley area, along with Clarrie and his father, they took up newly released marginal country at Bullfinch, on the fringe of the wheat growing area of the state. Frank later struggled alone on even more marginal country 11 kilometers east of Herb and Clarrie. Sheep had not yet been introduced to this country, mainly because of the absence of a constant supply of water, so to make ends meet Clarrie and Frank would leave Bullfinch to find work shearing elsewhere, including Beverley where they had established runs. "Extracts from The Northam Advertiser. Wednesday, 10th November 1897"

The sudden death of a man named John Roberts, who was employed in Meckering on Montague's farm, was reported to the Northam police on Saturday last. Constable Quinn was at once sent to Meckering, and from enquiries made, an inquest was deemed necessary, and the body was accordingly sent by train to Northam Hospital Morgue.

On Sunday morning the acting coroner, A. Madden, Esq., J.P., and a jury consisting of J.T. Reilly (foreman), H.V. Cox and A.C. McCorry, commenced the preliminary investigation.

The Coroner and Jury proceeded to the morgue, and having viewed the body, adjourned to the Court House at 8.00 am on Monday, 8th inst., on which date the following evidence was taken:

Hedley Louis Roberts, sworn, said: "I am a gardener at Meckering. I am living at Mr. Moore's house. I saw my brother (deceased) at dinner time at Moore's about 1.00 pm. I have another brother besides the deceased. The deceased was a married man. The deceased and his wife lived about four miles from Moore's on Montague's farm. Deceased was lying down in my room at Mr. Moore's. Deceased did not particularise his complaint.

The deceased had dinner with me. Mr. Moore and another man also had dinner. The deceased did not eat much at dinner, and he again complained he was not well. After dinner I left deceased and went to work. The deceased came here from South Australia in February last. Before coming to this colony deceased enjoyed good health. I often heard deceased was ill while in Perth.

About two months ago deceased and my other brother came to Meckering. Deceased complained about his head being "dizzy" last Thursday. He had also complained before of "dizziness" in the head. Deceased sometimes appeared depressed in spirits. I put his depression down to his illness, as he complained of pains in his chest, which he thought was indigestion. Deceased did not specify his illness on the day of his death. Deceased had means. Deceased was in easy circumstances. One of my brothers had diphtheria and my mother died in an apoplectic fit, in South Australia.

By the Bench: Deceased was married last January in South Australia. I cannot say whether deceased took narcotics or not. I never knew him to take chlorodyne. I never knew deceased to take anything to make him sleep. Deceased slept with me last Wednesday night, and he seemed very restless. I did not see deceased again alive after he had left Moore's on Friday.

I saw his dead body on Saturday morning at 11.00 am in the garden, and perhaps went there for the purpose of selecting a spot, or perhaps deceased was, looking for me, as I used to work in the Garden.

Russel Chute, sworn, said: "I am employed at Mr. Moore's gardening. I knew deceased.

On Saturday morning about 9.00 am I went into Moore's Garden to get vegetables, and on my returning I saw a dead body on the ground. The body was quite stiff. There were no signs of a struggle near the body, but there were signs that the deceased had rolled over and over. The ground was hard.

Deceased's body was about half a chain from the garden gate, and I informed Mr. Moore about finding the body in the garden. I saw deceased on Friday after sundown. I went into Moore's house on Friday about 5 o'clock, and I saw someone leaning on the door outside.

I came out and saw it was the deceased. I thought the deceased was the worse for drink. I spoke to the deceased and concluded he was in drink. Deceased was staggering about. Deceased said he was drunk; he had no hat on. Deceased then went and laid down in Mr. Moore's and I then helped him into another room, to his brother's room which was outside. Deceased staggered a great deal while I was taking him to the room. It was then about 5 o'clock when I put deceased on his brother's bed. Deceased acted peculiarly in the bed. I stayed with deceased for over an hour and during that time only left the room twice; once to get deceased a drink, and again to speak to two men about a horse.

I saw deceased leave Mr. Moore's house, walking away apparently all right in the direction of the garden. I never saw deceased alive again. The garden is about a hundred yards from the house. I believe Mr. Moore had obtained some strychnine to poison a cat about two months ago. I never saw the poison, nor do I know where it was kept. Deceased had no hat on when he left Moore's.

By the Jury: Could not say where deceased got the drink. When I saw the body next morning, the hat was alongside of it. I found the body about 9 o'clock, it was stiff.

The inquiry was further postponed to Tuesday, the 16th, to obtain the evidence of the Government Analyst."

CARL REMARRIED

CHRISTIANE DOROTHEA FRIEDERICKE HOFF

Born: 1834/35

Died: 27 July 1864

Buried: Stockwell, South Australia

On the 3rd of January 1856, Carl married Christiane Dorothea Friederica Hoff, daughter of Dorothea. Could possibly have been Von Hoff and later changed. Carl was a cabinetmaker of Tanunda, and Dorothea was from Langmeil. They were married in the Lutheran Church at Langmeil, and August Ludwig Christian Kavel was the Officiating Minister, and was in the presence of Johann Friedrich Schwarz, Gottfried Auricht and August Schrapel. They lived at Ebenezer, near Nuriootpa, until Wilhelm's death.

FAMILY OF CARL AND CHRISTIANE

1. Maria Elizabeth	1857 - 1896	Edmund Godlich CHRISTIAN
2. Johann Friedrich Wilhelm	1859 - 1941	Louise Clara LOFFLER
3. Elisabeth	1861 - 1883	Hubert KRUSMANN
4. Simon Johannes Leigina	1864 - 1864

Maria was born at Tanunda. Maria, her brother, and sister were all known to be extremely kind people. Maria was able to read from the Bible at 5 years of age. Maria married Edmund Christian on 12th February 1877 at Nuriootpa by Pastor Reusch. Maria's sponsors were Wilhelm and Auguste Hoff and Wilhelm and Elizabeth Maywald. The couple had various moves throughout the Valley.

Edmund lived at Kangaroo Island then Krandorf when they shifted there from the Island, Ebeneser, Tanunda, New Mecklenberg, Greenock and finally Kapunda. Prior to the mid 1890's, Edmund and Maria lived at Nuriootpa, Krandorf, Ebeneser and Tanunda. In 1885, he purchased portion of section 199, being 10 acres, in the hundreds of Belvedere. Later in August 1888, sections 655 and 723 in the hundreds of Moorooroo were bought. A small farm of 68 acres, being section 680 in the hundreds of Nuriootpa, at Neu Mecklenberg (Gomersal) was home for the family for several years.

Edmund grew a little grain, besides running a few livestock. They were living on this farm when Maria died of pneumonia, leaving Edmund with 8 children, whose ages ranged from 3 to 18. Maria who was nearly 40 years of age, died on 7th December 1896.

Edmund Christian, the second child of Johann and Karoline, was born at Kingscote, Kangaroo Island and was one of the first whites born there. His early years were spent on the Island and then at Jacobs Creek on the mainland. Jack told Graeme Christian that his father struggled and worked hard all his life, amongst other things, doing a considerable amount of shearing with teams in the north of the state.

It is interesting to note that Margarethe, Edmund's sister was fostered by the Carl Maywald family for a time. This situation was possibly the means of Edmund getting to know Maria. Edmund died on 25th March 1927, after being married three times. He was buried at Kapunda in an unmarked grave. Three of Edmund's boys married three Sibly sisters from the city. They made good pioneer wives. The brothers were Jack, Reinhold, and Fred.

Dorothea was a tailoress and made all her own clothes, hats included. Her daughter said that she was able to make something out of nothing. For the war she was very patriotic and knitted endless numbers of jumpers, socks, and face washers. She had a fruit garden at Waikerie which she worked on and dried her own fruit. Instead of ploughing the garden she hoed or dug around the trees and grew all her own vegetables. She loved horse riding and side-saddle and could speak three to four languages.

She also had a garden at Blanchetown and walked from there to Nuriootpa. One son was born but died an infant, also one daughter called Mona, who said that as a small girl she always went to the riverbanks of which she was forbidden. She, one day, came home with a Spanish lad who had missed his ship in Port Adelaide, so thought that he would walk to Sydney by following the telegraph lines. He was soon lost in Blanchetown where Mona picked him up. His name was Peter Bootha, and he was a faithful servant to his rescuers as Dorothea had taken him in and given him a home. He passed away in 1978. Dorothea baked her own bread and German cake. She was born at Kapunda, and married Joe Hartwig on 16th May 1906. She passed away whilst living at Nuriootpa, South Australia.

John, the 90-year-old, said that when he went to Confirmation lessons in Tanunda, being taught by Pastor Keastner, he remembers how pastor not only spiritually fed John and another boy as they had a long way to walk home. Pastor also saw to it that they had the inner man fed also. John remembers the pastor's wife had died so Auntie Lizzie was keeping house for him. She was the cook and set a good meal before the boys. John said he had a most unhappy life with bad teeth, swollen gums, dreadful tooth aches, but never any dentist. Later on he had a nervous breakdown, also injured his spine, had a bad fall from a horse, badly sprained both ankles and later had a nasty heart attack from delayed shock, and no Doctor within 100 miles. As if that was not enough trouble, two different Doctors told him he could not possibly live beyond two years. That was all 68 years previous. Said John "I always get angina pains but still live on". Many is the letter that John wrote to The Stock and Station Journal, and to other papers. Jack was born at Angaston and was only 7 years old when his mother died. He married Florry Sibly in Adelaide in September 1920. He passed away in Adelaide. Florence died during childbirth, and John was adopted out.

When Viola's mother died, they had a very unhappy time. When she was 12 years of age, she went to keep house for her brothers. She already had a boyfriend; this is probably why she had to keep house for her brothers. Viola was not allowed to write to her boyfriend (no other than the man whom she later married, Will Johns). But where there is a will there is a way and write letters she did and receive them also.

Viola had curly hair and when her stepmother plaited it, she would rub fat in it then plait it quite tight to take out the curl. Viola was the youngest girl in the family and was five years old when her mother died. She was born at Angaston, and married Willy Johns in Denial Bay on 13th January 1916. She passed away in Kapunda. Willy was also known as John William Johns.

Arthur, as the Minister of Agriculture, sent messages to "The Stock Journal" for readers.

"The country is generally in excellent heart and naturally country folk, buoyed up with the prospects, will undoubtedly attend the Adelaide show in increasing numbers". I always read with interest the doings of country folk throughout the state, which are so admirably featured in this paper. The Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Society is to be congratulated. Sir Keith Angas was the president of the R.A.H.A. at that time, in 1955. This country that was in such excellent heart was also the means of his untimely death, at the age of 62 years, in the bush fires that were so destructive in 1956, called Black Sunday. Arthur was one of the finest speakers and debaters in the state and he with the assistance of Mr. Tom Stott and his brother Jack as writer to the press were largely responsible for getting the Wheat Stabilisation Scheme passed, which has saved thousands of farmers from ruin. This was during the Playford Government era.

When Arthur was 13 years, he joined in a debate "The debating Society" with two other men against three others, Arthur's side won, that is where he learnt to speak and eventually became the finest debater. Arthur was chairman of "The Public Works Committee" the most important committee in Parliament. He was very consciences and worked extremely hard at whatever he undertook. In 1889 there was a big flood in South Australia, or the greatest flood. Arthur was born at Tanunda, and married Olive Wakefield on 14th August 1924. He passed away in Nildottie.

Beverley remarried Gsybertus J.A. van Dan Brink on 9th May 1976:

Edmund remarried:

Wilhelm Maywald was born on May 2nd, 1859, as the son of Carl Gottlob Maywald (1809 - 1889) and Christiana Dorothea Friedka (nee Hoff) (1835 - 1863). Father Carl was a carpenter, and came from Ransen, East Germany, in 1844 and settled at Bethany, S.A., for a time, later moving to Light Pass. At the tender age of five years his mother died, leaving a young family. In 1866 they moved to a farming property, Block 199, Hundreds of Belvidere, which Carl had bought. He proceeded to build this into a farm and vineyard. The farmhouse was built of wattle and daub. Later a separate kitchen and bedrooms were added. Some of the floors were packed with clay. The house stood till about 1982, when his great-grandson, Ken Groves (then the owner), had it demolished. The garden was quite extensive, with roses growing over the picket gate and geraniums and hollyhocks among the roses. Almond trees grew along two sides of the "house block" and several Bay trees grew in the garden. Huge Pepper trees cast shade on parts of the house. In 1867 Wilhelm's father, Carl, re-married to Maria Gasson. The farm was handed over to son "Bill" in 1918, and he lived there all his life. However, in 1939, the land was passed over to his youngest son, Carl Silvanus (Sam).

Wilhelm (Bill) married Louise Clara Löffler, third daughter, sixth child of Friedrich Wilhelm Löffler and Johanne Christiane (nee DITTRICH), of Stockwell, on May 13th, 1880. He bought land in Nuriootpa's main street (Murray Street) and conducted a carpentry and joinery works. He was also the local undertaker and made coffins at his workshop. The shop occupied the site where McLean's Newsagency and adjoining shop are now situated. Their grandchildren (Bill's children) remember walking out to the farm on Sunday afternoons, pushing the youngest in a pram, to visit their grandparents. Clara insisted that the children speak German in her home. Wilhelm and Clara were members of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Light Pass, where they regularly attended. When Wilhelm died in 1941 (aged 82) he was buried beside his wife, Clara, in the cemetery behind the church.

Clara predeceased him on December 29th, 1929.

The story is told that Clara had twins born prematurely, who were buried in the back garden.

(In those days premature births were often not registered. No records of the births have been found.) It is said that Clara kept flowers growing over the plot, which was surrounded with bricks. Wilhelm and his two sisters were known to be extremely kind people.

Alfred was born at Ebenezer on April 16th, 1881. Pastor Niquet baptised him at Immanuel Church, Light Pass, on May 7th of the same year, and he was confirmed at the same church in October 1895, by Pastor J. Spanagel. Pastor J. Meier officiated at his marriage to Antonie Ida (nee Atze). The ceremony was conducted at the bride's home, which became the residence of the Alfred Maywald. He was a carpenter all his life, specialising in house repairs and painting. Alfred was a faithful, conscientious worker, scrupulously honest and fair in all his dealings. Of a humble and quiet disposition, he tried to live his life by work and example according to the Scriptures. The Word of God and his Saviour were his guide and stay. He was a life-long and faithful member of the Light Pass Immanuel Church. Alfred was blessed with good health, except for a period in the forties when, for a time, doctors were baffled by his sickness, and he needed the help of a stick to walk. He then experienced a marvellous recovery. It was while he was enjoying the company of all members of his family, who had gathered to celebrate Father's Day with him at his home, that his life came to a peaceful end. He reached the age of 85. Funeral services were held at his home and at Immanuel Church and Cemetery. Pastor P. Mickan officiated.

Arthur, second child of Wilhelm Maywald and Clara (nee Loffler), was born at Nuriootpa on February 19th, 1884. After attending the local primary school, he was apprenticed at the insistence of his mother to Mr. Thamm, of Truro, to learn the saddlery trade. He walked back from Truro each weekend to spend time with his family at Nuriootpa, and then walked back to Truro (16km) again on Sunday night. At the end of his training, and now as a qualified saddler, he went to work for Ernst Kranz at Caltowie.

It is here that he met Theresa, the eldest child and daughter of Ernst and Doretta Kranz (nee Roennfeldt). Arthur and Theresa were later married at the Caltowie Lutheran Church on November 11th, 1908.

They moved to Nuriootpa, where Arthur started his own business of making saddlery and harness goods. He also built "cycles to order" stocked petrol and was a hairdresser. When saddlery was in decline and cars replaced horses, Arthur opened a shoe shop and did shoe and boot repairs. Like his mother he was a keen gardener and always had a beautiful flower garden. During the Centenary Year of South Australia (1936) he designed and tended the gardens at the new Centennial Park at Nuriootpa, where he put in hours and hours of voluntary work. For this he was made a Life Member of the Park. His other recreation was doing crossword puzzles. Arthur was a wonderful family man, proud of his family of ten.

He was also very civic minded and worked for various community causes. He served on many committees, including the local Primary School, Institute and Park, and was also a Justice of the Peace for many years. He died of a heart attack at the age of 68 years on December 11th, 1952, and was buried in the Nuriootpa Cemetery.

Theresa, the only girl in the family (her twin sister died at two months) led a sheltered life as her father was very strict about what she was allowed to do. He forbade her to take part in Caltowie school concerts because he considered it a sin for girls to be on the stage. However, her mother would smuggle her out of the house to take part. She had such a beautiful voice that her teacher called her "Birdie". She was taught music by the nuns at Caltowie convent and later played the organ at Caltowie Lutheran Church.

For the next few years Theresa was busy bringing up their family of ten children and struggled to make ends meet during the Great Depression. Nevertheless, it was a happy home with family singsongs around the piano on Sunday nights, Theresa playing, Arthur singing bass and the children joining in.

Theresa's father had made the most amazing sets of biscuit cutters for Theresa and his daughters-in-law. There were animals, pipes, trains, birds, Christmas trees, hearts, and comas (for the scraps) - shapes to delight small children's hearts. Each Christmas Theresa made traditional honey and rock-ammonia biscuits while children looked on, savouring the delicious aromas, and eagerly waiting to sample them. It was hot work in December with a large wood stove, but the children helped by taking biscuits from the big trays as they cooled enough to handle and eat. These biscuits were then stored in "Griffiths Tea" tins and kept on top of a wardrobe out of reach of little fingers to ensure that at least some would be left. Theresa enjoyed singing in the church choir with four of her sons and daughters. She also worked part-time at the Institute Library and enjoyed contact with people. She was a wonderful mother with a strong Christian faith and the continuing close-knit family relationship is a fitting memorial to Theresa and Arthur.

ERIC MAYWALD: MEMOIRS.

"Although we were a very poor family financially, as a family unit we were rich in fellowship and love. We had no means of transport, so we had to walk. One of our favourite spots was a beautiful, wooded area about 2 - 3 minutes out of the town.

Dad would take us there, especially in the springtime, when we would pick wildflowers and gather red berries and cranberries. Sad to say this beautiful area has been developed and this heritage has gone forever.

A walk to the cemetery was a popular way to spend a Sunday afternoon.

I guess the headstones had been read dozens of times, but every time we went up there, they were all studied again. There is fascination in reading headstones. They reveal much local history. In these early days German was the language of our home and at that time most of the "Stones" were in German.

Another way to spend Sunday was to walk out to our grandparent's farm. This was a whole day's outing. After dinner there was much excitement - a walk into the bush and vineyard; yabbing in the dam; and in the summertime usually a fresh watermelon. At the end of the day, we would be driven home with horse and cart.

My Dad's shop was the local meeting place for all his cronies, and here political matters were discussed with great enthusiasm. Politically my father was on the wrong side of the fence, and this was most exciting. All the staunch Labour supporters, Labour candidates and Parliamentarians would gather here. Outstanding in my mind was Joel Moses Gabb, a market gardener, and a Methodist lay preacher. He had a voice as loud as a bull. He did all his campaigning on pushbike. Because he was an anti-conscriptionist and because many of his electors were of German descent, there was quite a panic when a federal election was held in about 1917. Many were afraid of being conscripted for active service or being interned. He was elected to one of the most conservative electorates in the country. During winter evenings we would sit around an open fire. Every year there would be an extra member. Mum loved having her hair brushed and combed and the girls would spend hours doing this. Dad would tell stories. He was a prolific reader, and his stories were full of exciting adventures.

The family was very loyal to the town, and this was instilled into us, and we grew up believing we had a duty to the town - to put something back into the place which had given us a home, our spouses, families, and much civic pride. That is why I have helped to make our town a place in which we are proud to live".

Eric was born at Nuriootpa on November 15th, 1909. He attended the local Primary School and Gawler High School up to Intermediate standard. On May 30th, 1942, he married Hilda Schiller, a dressmaker, who was baptised and confirmed at Strait Gate Lutheran Church by Dr. J.J. Stolz.

Hilda made her own and her attendants' frocks for the wedding. The Maywald's were married at Nuriootpa Methodist Church. There were four children, one now deceased. During his working life Eric found various kinds of employment - with A.R. Summerton, Dallwitz Ltd., Ben Dallwitz, Zerela,

H. K. Lindner, H.L. Sheard, Nuriootpa Community Store (39 years, member of staff and Social Club Committee), Glen Osmond Post Office and Federal Hotel Semaphore as Chef. He then became a baker at Nuriootpa where he made bread, pies, pasties, cakes and tarts which he delivered from house to house whilst still oven fresh. His last place of employment was at Sheard's General Store, Nuriootpa, where he was Departmental Manager when he retired after thirty-nine years. He helped establish the first Scout Group in Nuriootpa and was its first Cub Master. His services to community and church have included: Secretary, Nuriootpa Methodist (now Uniting) Church, 41 years; Secretary, Nuriootpa Cemetery Trust,

20 years committee member, 18 years secretary; member of school and kindergarten committees; member of Centenary Caravan Park Committee, 18 years assistant secretary; member of Friendship Senior Citizens' Club, Nuriootpa, 12 years, 4 years on Management Committee. He has sung in the Methodist Church choir and served the Community Church parish council in the following capacities: Properties Committee, elder, steward; member of Parish Men's Fellowship, 23 years; with 4 years as secretary. Eric was a member of the first Nuriootpa Scout Troop and first Cub Master, Nuriootpa Pack. He has served as Organizer of the "Cheap Jack" at the Christmas party for children. During the war years he was Air Raid Warden and secretary of the War Loans Committee until his death.

Eric and Hilda lived in retirement in Nuriootpa. In March 1983, they went through the terrifying experience of having their flat go under floodwaters two feet deep. They have marked the flood level with a plaque. Hilda had the misfortune of being confined to a wheelchair following an accident and owing to a stroke. Eric died peacefully in his sleep on 24th April 1989.

Veilchen (Vi) was born at Nuriootpa on March 7th, 1912. Because schooling was not compulsory in those days she was taken out of school when in Grade VI so that she could help her mother care for her brothers and sisters. Apparently, she assisted at home from an early age, standing on a box so she could reach to scrub on the old-fashioned washboard - sometimes until her little fingers started to bleed. She later worked for the Coulthard family. She was a wonderful help to her mother in looking after, and assisting, the younger children of the family. Vi married Gordon Rankine on May 4th, 1935, in the old Methodist Church in Fourth Street, Nuriootpa. (When the new church was built, the old one was transported to another town for use). Gordon was born at Redruth, Burra, on August 22nd, 1911. He attended school to the 1st Year High School level. During World War 2, he served in the R.A.A.F., after which he was employed as a customs officer, the job that he had prior to the War. Vi was an active worker for her church, in schools and for the Scouts. Vi's great love was for gardening. Her floral arrangements were widely known and appreciated. One of her achievements was the annual floral display at Rosefield Methodist Church depicting biblical themes. Her other talent was her voice. Besides singing in the Rosefield Church choir her singing was much in demand for social functions. Vi died suddenly and unexpectedly on March 31st, 1975, just a few weeks before their 40th wedding anniversary, and is remembered with much love and affection as one who was able to make others feel Special and loved. In 1977 Gordon married Shirley Crawford. They live in a Retirement Village at Edwardstown.

When Arthur and Theresa received their seventh child, Dorothea, on August 3rd, 1923, they once again decided to link the name of their child with that of a former generation, giving her "Theresa" as second name. As in the case of the other Maywald children she was educated at the local schools. Like her sisters and brothers, she grew up at Nuriootpa. On completing her education, she went to work at the local Photographic Studio. This was in the days before the advent of colour processing, so Dot did the tinting of the black and white. Dorothea married Peter Dolan, of Renmark, at the Nuriootpa Methodist Church in 1949.

They have a daughter and three sons. Peter served with the A.I.F. during World War 2, when he returned, was granted a soldier-settlement block, at Loxton, to which the family moved in the 1950's. They worked a fruit block at Loxton for some years before retiring to Victor Harbor. Peter has been an active member of Rotary at Loxton and at Victor Harbor. They enjoy playing tennis, walking, and travelling. They now live at Victor Harbor, South Australia.

Beryl was born at Nuriootpa on January 2nd, 1925. She attended the Primary and High Schools in the local area. After leaving school her first job was at Sheard's General Store as cashier for 6 years (the store later became the Community Co-op). She then worked at the office of Tolley, Scott and Tolley until her marriage in 1948. She played basketball very well and served the Nuriootpa Methodist Church as Sunday School teacher and choir member. Beryl also participated in the local Girl's Club Choir (this oversaw Mr. and Mrs. Dempster, who were well-known in the Barossa Valley for their musical competency). Beryl was also for some time the Institute librarian. She was married in 1948 to John Maschmedt, who during World War 2 served in the 2nd A.I.F. in the Pacific Islands, and after his discharge, he returned to the printing trade. John is a great-grandson of Pastor Christian Maschmedt, who was one of South Australia's early Lutheran Pastors, having arrived here in 1846. (Arthur Maywald was christened by Pastor Maschmedt in 1884). Beryl was, for some time, a committee member at Marryatville School Welfare Club, Norwood High Parents and Citizens and the local Girl Guide branch. In fact, the whole family was active in the Scout and Guide movements. Meals-on-Wheels has benefited from her service as a volunteer for the past fifteen years. Beryl worked in the office of Customs and Excise in Adelaide prior to the birth of their first child in 1951. Due to post-war housing shortage John decided to build a family home of his own.

He left his job after 13 years as Letterpress Machinist at Kent Press and leased a milk round for 2 years. This gave him more time to devote to building. When the lease expired, he went to work at the "Advertiser", printing the daily paper. He left after 18 years to be production manager at the Real Estate Institute till retirement in 1984.

The Maschmedt's have two children: David, born in 1951, and Ann in 1954. Beryl was on the Welfare Club Committee and Norwood High School Parents and Friends Committee. She was treasurer of the Norwood Girl Guides, sang in the Kensington church choir.

Last, but not least, in the Maywald family is John. Together with his wife, Ruth he runs the Jacaranda Nursery and Florist shop in Waikerie, which is jam-packed with flowers, shrubs, plants and all gardening requisites and souvenirs. Their floral arrangements are much sought after. John was born at Nuriootpa on August 8th, 1930 and was educated there. After completing four years at the local High School, he worked at the Nuriootpa Post Office and later at the Taxation Department in Adelaide. In 1954 he moved to Waikerie and went into partnership with his brother, Martin, and sister-in-law Shirley, in a delicatessen business known as "Mart's Cafe" for a period of 13 years. John's talent for acting was evident with his involvement in the local theatre group. He was a member of the High School Council for three years and is in various committees related to the Waikerie Uniting Church. He is Superintendent of the Sunday School as well as Parish council secretary. John then took a partner in, making a total of 26 years in the cafe business. He then began his present business in partnership with his wife Ruth (nee Buckley), who was born at Mannum on August 25th, 1936. She had lived near Swan Reach and then moved to Waikerie, where she was educated and then employed at Murray Vale studio as a photographic assistant. She married John on April 25th, 1959. Creativity has always been part of her, and her love for flowers provided a good basis for "Jacaranda", which is a member of Interflora. Ruth is an elder in the Uniting Church at Waikerie and belongs to the Women's Fellowship, where she has held office as President for two years. She is a member of the Parish Council and is on the Properties Committee. She has taught Sunday School classes for 7 years. Ruth was President of the Mothers' and Babies' Health Association for 3 years and was given Life Membership and is now Patron of the local branch. Serving the Lord is given priority by the Maywalds and they regard their business also as an opportunity to do so. John and Ruth retired early 1996.

Virginia Virginia Maywald was born in Waikerie, South Australia. She attended the University of South Australia, studying design and obtaining a Bachelor of Design (Ceramics) in 1982.

After graduating Virginia taught at Underdale Campus of University of South Australia, was artist in residence at Magill Campus of University of South Australia and was a member of a group of artists that toured country South Australia providing art workshops under a state government scheme.

Her love of the Arts brought her to Melbourne, where, as a studio potter, she based herself at the Meat Market Craft Centre in North Melbourne (now called "Arts House"), as well as teaching ceramics part time.

However, like most Artists her income was negligible, so to supplement this she began work doing another of her passions, cooking, at a Melbourne restaurant. The anti-social nature of working in the restaurant meant that along with friends and family her ceramics were being neglected. She realised that what she desired was to combine her love of food, cooking and ceramics with a need to earn a living.

An opportunity arose in 1987, when food writer Penny Smith was given the task of showing people how to cook and prepare Atlantic salmon, which was being commercially farmed in Tasmania. Unable to find a platter that was large enough to hold the whole fish, she asked for Virginia's help. Virginia rang the fish farm, found out the size of the fish, and made the appropriate platter. The demand for the platters grew to such an extent that she could no longer do the job on her own.

When her cousin Tim Dolan arrived on her doorstep looking for a new career several years after graduating from Roseworthy Agricultural College, she recognised the advantage of having a partner to expand her business. Tim's business knowledge and ability to understand machinery complemented her design and organisational skills and they formed The Big Duck and Fish Company.

Their business grew remarkably, with demand often exceeding supply. They had found their niche custom designing and making high quality ceramic tableware specifically for the hospitality industry.

In 1994 they moved from their studio at Northcote Pottery to a larger factory in North Fitzroy. This coincided with a growing demand both nationally and overseas. Virginia and Tim were sought by international hotels and resorts in Asia, America, Europe and the Middle East. They built strong connections within the Australian hospitality industry, supplying Hilton Hotels, Ayers Rock Resort, the Melbourne & Alice Springs Casinos, both David Jones and Myer food halls, to name a few. Their national profile was heightened by establishing themselves as favourites with Gabriel Gate, Jill Duplex and Stefano de Pieri. They were featured in major publications such as Vogue and Gourmet Traveller and would appear regularly in newspaper The Age (Melbourne). The list was long and the achievements great.

But the business was hit hard by the introduction of GST in 2000. Although the product range didn't change in price, their main customers, restaurants, hotels and resorts were severely affected. Undeterred, they diversified, expanding their retail store into other hotel and homeware products, and opened a cafe on site with Lynne Lowe and Stefano de Pieri.

After ensuring the survival of their business, by the end of 2004 Virginia and Tim found they desired a sea change. Tim went off to build a house for his family, ultimately becoming a licensed builder. Virginia decided to do something she had not been able to do before, dedicate herself to her family.

After 12 months Virginia was ready for a new challenge and began to search for a way to use her experience, skills and knowledge in the arts, small business and marketing.

Her familiarity with small business meant Virginia appreciated the need for owners to cover all aspects of operations, often without the support of someone who can assist in the analysis of their ideas and reaffirmation their goals.

In 2005 she was asked to conduct seminars and workshops for artists, through The Arts Management Advisory Group (AMAG). In 2006 Virginia started teaching marketing at the Victorian College of the Arts to post graduate Students attending the Wilin Centre for Indigenous Arts and Cultural Development.

Now as a private Consultant, Virginia works with businesses, identifying marketing strategies and areas of growth. Recently she has partnered with Sophie Whitwell to expand these services. Working together the team offers their clients a fresh approach to marketing strategies with an insight into "real life" manageable changes.

Elizabeth born on May 14th, 1965, was educated at Waikerie. Always interested in the performing arts, Elizabeth played lead roles in numerous school plays, especially musicals, for she is a talented singer. She played "A" grade hockey for Waikerie. In 1983 she was selected as a Rotary Exchange Student which took her to Somerset West, near Cape Town in South Africa.

While there she joined an adult theatre company and played "Lisa" in "Sound of Music". Back in Australia, she worked for a time for her cousin, Kay O'Shea, in the clothing business. Later that year she auditioned for the National Institute of Dramatic Arts (N.I.D.A.) in Sydney and was selected as one of twenty-five students for intake to that college, also winning the Adele Koh scholarship during that time. On completion of her course in 1986 she went into film and live acting and is furthering her training in singing. She lives in Sydney. In 1998 Elizabeth had a role as Sophie in a series 'All Saints' which was played on Television. In 1999 Elizabeth was performing on television advertising Hyundai with Tony Barber as Sophie was killed out of the series 'All Saints'. In Year 2001 Elizabeth had a role-playing Anna Miller in Home and Away.

"Bill" was born at Light Pass, probably at the farmhouse. He was baptised and confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran Church of the same location by Pastor J. Meier. He had red hair and in later years became known as "Red-headed Bill". He was tall and thin and wore glasses. After schooling, Bill was trained by his father as a carpenter (as were his brothers) and he worked in the family carpentry business. Later he worked for Tolleys and for J.B. Traeger & Co., Nuriootpa, and by all accounts he was a very good tradesman. In 1913 he built a chapel for the Zion Lutheran Congregation at Angaston at a cost of two hundred & twenty pounds. Bill was one of the two men who built the steeple of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Loxton - a precarious job! The pews in the Seventh Day Adventist Church (old church) on Old Kapunda Road, Nuriootpa, were hand-made by Bill, even though he was not a member of the Church.

Bill married Emilie Habermann, the oldest child of Friedrich Ewald and Christiane Bertha Habermann (nee Lindner). She was born at "Bloomfield", Walla Walla, halfway between Burrumbuttock and Walla. (Her mother, Bertha Lindner, had, as a child, gone on the trek from the Barossa Valley to the Albury district in 1866, when several Ebenezer families resettled in the Riverina). Emilie came to Nuriootpa to be a nurse-companion to her aunt, Emma Piltz, her father's sister.

Hugo Piltz, Emma's husband, was a tin smith and made copper kettles and other household utensils. Emilie met Bill and the young couple married at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Adelaide, on April 21st, 1909, and settled at Nuriootpa. Bill built their house in Second Street, where all their children were born. Emilie ran the local dairy from the cowshed built in the backyard. The shed was made of bush timber and the floor cobbled with brick and stone. The cows were grazed further down Second Street near the creek behind where the new Police Station has been built. Houses now cover the area. Emilie kept fowls and tended a large vegetable garden, where she grew cucumbers for dilling. She made her own noodles by rolling and cutting them by hand and was said to have special cooking skills. Coffee was also home-made from bran and treacle, slowly stirred in the oven of the wood stove. The children had this job. A large "feather-bed" was a great joy and comfort to her children and grandchildren when they came to visit. Emilie became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Nuriootpa and supported them to the end of her days. She sang in the church choir. In later years Emilie gave up her cows to the son, Percy, who, with his wife, Mona, had built a cream brick house next to the old home. Bill in his later years worked with his life-long friend, Arthur Reusch, supporting the local branch of Alcoholics Anonymous. He passed away at the age of 67 on October 12th, 1954, and was buried in the Nuriootpa Cemetery, Pastor H.F.W. Proeve officiating. Emilie lived to the age of 81, and was very stooped after a long, hard-working life. She died at Broken Hill on October 18th, 1967 and was laid to rest beside her husband in the Nuriootpa Cemetery. She was, in many respects, a remarkable woman, full of resourcefulness. She is said to have had a "merry twinkle" in her eyes.

Edna was born in Nuriootpa. She married Glen Martin, who was born at Eden Valley, on 10th December 1932. They settled in Nuriootpa and lived in a fine stone house in Railway Terrace. Edna was a good dressmaker and made hats. Glen ran a carrying business, carting goods from the local Railway Station. He also carried on a taxi service; Edna did the driving when Glen was unavailable. Glen's truck was used to transport the huge blocks of marble from Becker's quarry at Koonunga to Adelaide for the building of the Parliament House. Some of these blocks weighed up to 10 tons. Glen passed away at his home in Nuriootpa on May 22nd, 1969, at the age of 65. Being a Life Member of the Nuriootpa Football Club, members formed a guard of honour at the local cemetery. Edna was in a nursing home at Brahma Lodge, suffering from Alzheimer's disease. Edna passed away in Adelaide, South Australia. There are three daughters in the Martin family.

Percy was born at his parents' home at Nuriootpa on October 27th, 1911. He attended the Nuriootpa Primary School. On January 12th, 1939, he married Gertrude Mona Webber at the Congregational Church, Angaston. They had a family of two sons and two daughters. Mona was born at Penrice, South Australia. Percy had worked at Tolley's winery for many years till he purchased a fruit block on Research Road (half is now owned by the Viticulture Station and half by his son, Roger). Percy and Mona had built a new cream brick house next to their parents' home in Second Street, where they lived until moving to Research Road. The fruit block grew apricots, prunes and peaches, which in later years were removed and replaced with vines. For many years the family had a dairy with a delivery run in Nuriootpa. The old stone house had a separate kitchen. Percy enclosed the area between the house and kitchen. Apricot time was a busy time; there were 8 sulphur houses for the cut fruit. A large open area at the front of the house was used as drying ground. When Percy sold half the block to the Agricultural Department, he built a new house on Research Road. Percy's health declined after suffering a stroke and he passed away on August 5th, 1979 and was buried in the local cemetery.

Mona died on January 7th, 1980, at Tanunda after a short illness. Both Percy and Mona were devastated by the tragic death of daughter, Heather, and never really recovered from the shock.

Norm attended the Alma Public and Broken Hill High Schools. On April 17th, 1952, he married Winifred (Win) Stokes, who was born at Broken Hill, at the Central Street Methodist Church, South Broken Hill. Both bride and groom were members of the Church and took an active part in the various organisations. In the bridal party were Jack Stokes and Ken Groves, with Fay Groves and Win's sister, Dorothy, attending the bride. The young couple built a home in Suff Lane (now Clarke Street) and there they raised three children: John, Margaret, and Carol. George was born at Nuriootpa during World War I on August 17th, 1916, and grew up there, receiving his Primary and High School education in his hometown. At the age of 18 he went to Perth, W.A., and attended Junior College for 3 years. From there he went to the Senior Adventist College at Cooranbong, N.S.W., graduating as a teacher in 1938. His first appointment was to Hobart, where he was Headmaster of the Church's Central School for 4 years. He was then transferred to the Adventist College at Cooranbong, where he taught in the High School, concentrating on teacher training. After seven years he was transferred to Perth to take charge of the Church's Central School. After four years in this position, he was asked to take over the departmental work of the church in W.A., which included caring for the laity and welfare work. After 4 years of this he received a call to go to India. His first appointment was to South India to continue the same work as he did in W.A. This was in 1957. In 1960 he transferred to Bombay as President of the church work in that area, the Western Indian Union, which included work in two Indian States, Gugerat and Maharashtra. In 1962 whilst in attendance at a world conference in U.S.A. he was asked to take charge of the welfare work and training of nationals for the whole of the Southern Asian division. This work took him to Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Burma, Sri Lanka, Kashmir and Nepal - altogether a quite exciting experience. He carried on this work for 8 years until 1970, when he returned to Australia to a similar position. This meant travelling all over Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific and Australasia. In 1975 he transferred from this work to pastoral work in several Sydney congregations.

He retired in 1982, but is still associate minister of the headquarters Church, chaplain of the Youth Concert Band, chaplain of a Business Mens' Association, as well as National Membership chairman of the Avondale College Foundation.

George married Elizabeth Stobart at Wahroonga, N.S.W., on December 16th, 1940. Elizabeth was born at Maryport, England, and migrated to Western Australia with her parents in 1920. She was educated in Perth and Sydney. She graduated from Sydney Adventist Hospital in 1940 as a trained nurse and has rendered valuable assistance in India whilst George was serving there and elsewhere. George is a retired Minister of Religion, living at No. 1 Alton Villas, Cooranbong, N.S.W. He can recall that the old seamen folk in the Barossa Valley always spelt their name "Maeveltd".

Clarence (Clarrie) was born at Nuriootpa on May 20th, 1923. He attended the Nuriootpa Primary School, then the High School, prior to being enrolled at the Adventist College at Cooranbong, N.S.W., in preparation for a teaching career. But he left College and joined the Army, serving for the next 7 1/2 years. Three of these years were spent in Japan with the Occupation Army after the horrific bombing of Hiroshima. Whilst there, in 1947, he started a school for the children of soldiers of the British Occupation Forces, the first English School in Japan. After his discharge Clarrie attended Adelaide Teachers' College. He married Shirley Hatch on August 6th, 1949. Shirley was born at Angaston. His first teaching appointment was at Tarcoola, where he held English classes at night for adult migrants working on the railways. It was here that he and his wife first became interested in community work, helping to organise working bees for the construction of a hospital for the Flying Doctor Service. When Clarrie was transferred to the Nuriootpa Primary School, he and Shirley took up residence in the "old" family home in Second Street, caring for Clarrie's aged mother, Emilie, until her death (13 years). Shirley worked at the local telephone exchange. At school Clarrie made time, besides his other activities, for the school band, acting as instructor. For many years he could be heard and seen "Sergeant-Majoring" the Band in the streets of Nuriootpa. He became interested in many town activities, including the Nuriootpa Youth Club and Swimming Pool Committee. His association with the Pool continued for more than 20 years and he was proud to have helped this Pool become one of the finest in S.A. After 25 years Clarrie left teaching to take up an appointment as Welfare Officer for the local "Aged Community Centre", where he was a much loved officer. Shirley has also been working with the aged community. Clarrie died at his home on June 14th, 1981, as the result of a heart attack. His untimely death at the age of 58 was mourned by all who knew him. In recognition of their work with the aged community a Wing of the Nuriootpa Home for the Aged was named the "Clarrie and Shirley Maywald Wing". Shirley now lives in a smaller unit and keeps busy with her family, community and church work. Clarrie was cremated and his ashes buried in the R.S.L. Garden Cemetery, Nuriootpa, South Australia.

Lieschen was born at Nuriootpa on June 26th, 1890. Upon leaving home she took up residence at Fourth Street, Nuriootpa, in the old Kalleske home, which had a large garden area with a huge Moreton Bay Fig tree and an underground tank with a hand pump. It could have been described as a mini-Botanic Garden. Late in life (June 24th, 1932) she married German immigrant, Karl Grand, who at some stage was a chiropractor in Adelaide. No children were born to the marriage.

Karl and Lieschen separated after Karl joined the Jehovah's Witnesses in 1947. Karl is said to have re-married and resided at Waterfall Gully. Lieschen continued to live at Fourth Street. She was fond of cats, kept a number of them and endeavored to find good homes for homeless cats. She did not approve of T.V. but was a regular listener to radio programs. The "World of Tomorrow" radio programs of H.W. Armstrong of the World-wide Church of God, U.S.A., she found interesting and even credible. She died at the Angaston Hospital on October 18th, 1978, aged 88, and was buried two days later in the Nuriootpa Cemetery. Pastor K.P. Pfitzner, of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, officiated at the private burial service.

Lola was born at Nuriootpa on October 5th, 1934. At first she attended the local Primary School, then the Ramco Primary and Waikerie High School. Prior to marriage she was secretary to a local solicitor and worked in her father's Serv-Wel store, doing office work. On November 13th, 1954, she married Arthur Bishop at the Waikerie Methodist Church. Arthur had completed his apprenticeship in hairdressing and had gained the registration certificate. He had then entered into partnership with his father on a fruit block, and the first 12 years of Lola and Arthur's marriage were spent furthering this venture. During this time they broke new ground in the Golden Heights Irrigation area and built a house for themselves. Arthur kept up hairdressing part-time. As the result of a camping trip to Alice Springs in May 1963, Arthur was keen to move to the Centre, but this did not eventuate. In May, 1964, the Bishops opened a hairdressing business in Waikerie, "Riverina Salons". They designed and constructed the salon themselves; at the time it was the most modern between Adelaide and Mildura. It consisted of a men's salon, a ladies' salon, and a requisite's shop separating the two. They ran this business successfully until December, 1970, when they sold it to two employees, apprentices, who had been trained in their salons and were now married. Having purchased "Territory Business Suppliers" in partnership with Natalie and Clive Brooks, they moved to Alice Springs in January, 1971. In February, 1976, they formed a proprietary company, Territory Business Suppliers Pty. Ltd. They also operated the Alice Springs South Post Office till it was closed by Australia Post on March 27th, 1987. Their slogan is: "Supplying the Centre and Beyond with all office and business requirements". In August, 1987, they moved into new premises one block down in Gregory Terrace, which is bigger and equipped with new fittings and fixtures. The Bishops have two sons, Peter and Alan.

FIFTH FAMILY

The following information was supplied by Armin Maywald, Hirschfeldstrabe 4, D-21073 Hamburg. Phone: 040/765 21 63 The roots of his ancestors go back to Schlesien (Silesia). Has been able to trace back to 1709, and they were farmers and miners. Later some were officials in Post-Offices and Administrations.

Hermann was born in Danzig (today: Gdansk/Poland), but died in an accident. He married in 1947, when he came out of captivity because of World War II. Hermann came without any identifying papers from war and made a declaration in lieu of an oath about himself. In this statement, he was a sailor in the German Merchandise Marine before the war. At a big bombing out of Hamburg in 1942, the Naval Office headquarters were hit, and almost every file destroyed. According to that, his parents, his sister and he were living in the area of Danzig before World War II. Because of war actions, especially in East Germany, there has been destroyed a lot and many people were killed, so the reference to Hermann's decent is unclear. No information about these 1& 2) are available, so it is assumed that Hermann's relatives were killed during the war.

August was born at Steinseiffen, Prussia, and on 14th May, 1883 in Breslau, married Friedericke Scholtz (Carrie). He may also have been H. Augusta, and he brought his family out from Germany. They left Bremen on the vessel "Bark Neptune", whose Master was A. Smith of Prussia. They arrived in America at Galveston, Texas, as that was the only port in Texas at that time on 15th December, 1848. The story that seems factual about the arrival is that Augusta arrived with his wife and more than one child. He found room for them to spend the first night ashore in the attic of a house but he did not have any money to pay for the room. He played the violin, or the fiddle. He spent the night fiddling in a bar and the patrons threw money in his hat for him to pay for the lodging. H. Augusta had a large family. He may have become a US citizen in 1860 in Montgomery, Texas. August passed away at Plantersville, Grimes County, Texas, and is buried there. Friedericke was born at Breslau, and was the daughter of Johann Bernhard and Johanna Sophie (nee Blach). She passed away in Grimes County, Texas. She may have been Fredericka Chariott, born 1st January, 1808.

Following is an article from the Grimes County Sentinel reference the passing of Charlotta.

Plantersville Pickings

Friday, June 6, 1884 "On the morning of the 26 of May, Mrs Charlotte Scholtz Maywald was found dead in bed. She was about seventy six years of age, and had suffered for many years with heart disease. Her constant prayers had been for a long time to go to sleep some night and wake in the other world, and they were singularly answered. She was unusually well on Sunday and was very cheerful, retired at the accustomed hour and was found a corpse the next morning. She became religious at an early age, and it can be said of her as Christ said to Nathaniel "an Israelite, indeed". May her children all meet her in the "Sunlight clime".

Whitlock, J.P. He passed away at Guadalupe County, Texas, and is buried at Plantersville, Grimes County, Texas.

Henrietta was born in 1838 in Mississippi. They lived in Guadalupe for several years.

Gus is shown on the 1860 Census in Guadalupe County, with Alse "Elsie", his wife, who was 22, 2 daughters. Pauline, age 2, and Mary A., age 1.
